

MENSCH UP

MEET OUR MENSCHUP FACILITATOR

Ophir Haberer has come to Shalom Bayit as an experienced Jewish educator and retreat planner. He has developed two iterations of a retreat titled “Unearthing Authentic Masculinity.” Ophir’s work has focused on creating immersive experiences for men to intimately relate to one another, claim more authentic expression of themselves, and position themselves as better allies. He has done work with Moishe House, Wilderness Torah, the Interfaith Sustainable Food Collaborative, and Center for Earth-based Judaism.

In addition to his work focused on gender and empowerment, Ophir is passionate about Judaism, permaculture, and sustainable food. He is also currently a resident and contributing member of a restorative justice intentional community called Canticle Farm in Oakland.
